Giotto is a butterfly, although he still looks like a caterpillar. He's such a strange character! And he's about to leave such an extraordinary adventure to: a great and incredible transformation! It doesn't seem to have affected him that much, however, and he'd rather spend his time eating everything he finds: fizzy drinks, chips, sweets... If you get too fat, you won't be able to spin your cocoon, Giotto - careful!
