2012

Season: SPRING 2012

The multimillionaire William Fox has just lost his daughter in an accident. Determined not to say goodbye to her definitively, he opts to have her cyronically preserved and to embark on research to see if there may be any way to bring her back to life. He hires the oenologist John Pearson and the psychologist Isabella Verona to make an in depth study of clues to resurrection found around the world. Meanwhile, two brothers scarred by dark and dramatic events meet after many years with the aim of putting a stop to this investigation at all costs. Who will this race against the clock?
