Season: SPRING 2012

This year Valeria is going to have a very special holiday, or at least that's what her mum says, a real specialist in finding original, out-of-the-ordinary locations. She chooses a peculiar, lonely spot in the north of Norway, and there, the present mixes with the past in Valeria's dreams.

A story that took place during the Nazi occupation of the country, a lighthouse in the middle of the sea and Valeria's eyes as a link. And so, a summer that seemed at first like it was going to be boring becomes unforgettable.
