"I was born a Barcelonian and I'll die a Barcelonian. There's nothing to compare with wearing the blue-maroon shirt. Twelve years after arriving at Barcelona I had to leave to find happiness. If I couldn't be happy in football I couldn't be happy with life. I wanted to smile again. Turn the page. But the future is not written yet. I'll write it." Bojan Krkic.

After a lifetime at Barcelona, Bojan Krkic, the boy from Linyola, one of the most popular players with the fans, had to leave the club he loved. With great humanity, sincerity, understanding and insight, "El meu Barca" ("My Barcelona") tells at first hand the story of his brilliant career, his rise day by day from basic football to the top league.
