2012

Season: SPRING 2012

Woman: Powerful. Dominant. Sometimes cruel. Independent and seductive. Alfonso Azpiri illustrates her better than anyone. All the goddesses and women warriors are represented here, in all their glory. Fiction, real life and myth all have examples of the most beautiful -- and dangerous -- women.

Diana Azpiri, the illustrator's daughter, provides the text for this awesome piece of work.

"Daughters of war, powerful and evasive. Placed in the world by the capricious gods in order to sow discord and disputes between men. The delights they promise can be heard in whispers, poisoning the minds of those who hear. They commit atrocious crimes and blame others, taking men on, making them question themselves."
