'The Joyce Way' is a travel book, recounting the cities visited by Alfonso Zapico when he was researching and documenting Joyce's movements for the graphic novel 'Dubliner' (Astiberri, 2011), as well as the other cities he visited while he was working on this account of the brilliant Irish writer.

The reader gets to accompany Zapico on his eventful journeys all around Dublin, Trieste, Paris and Zurich -- the four most important cities in Joyce's life.
